

TOP GUN Program: 2024

Preface:

The goal of developing the TOP GUN Program was to provide our members and guests greater opportunities to compete in rifle competitions using their favorite firearms and equipment. To keep the competitions Fun and Fair, these competitions are meant to follow a Gentleman's Set of Rules.

Personnel:

Shooters vary from individual competitors to teams of 2, 3 or 4 competitors.

Course of Fire:

To provide a challenge to each rifleman, the rifle competitions vary in Course of Fire. Challenges include; changes in Yardage, Positions (Off-Hand and/or Benchrest), time, number of rounds to be used, and types of targets to be used.

Targets:

Most targets are comprised of either paper, metal plates or bowling pins.

Yardages:

Most competitions use yardages of 25, 50, 75, 100, and 200 yards.

Calibers:

Rifle calibers used range from .17 caliber to 30 caliber ammunition.

Firearms:

Rifles include Benchrest and Sporter classifications. Benchrest rifles are strictly meant for shooting from a benchrest, where as, Sporter rifles are meant to be shouldered from the Off-Hand position. Division 1: Rifleman's Challenge events feature both Off-Hand and Benchrest positions during the COF. Divisions 2 and 3, Legend/Legacy events feature strictly Benchrest positions.

Equipment:

Division 1: (Informal Rests) Rifleman's Challenge events feature frontal rests, but no rear rests. Sand bags, blankets, backpacks, and bipods are appropriate for front rest. The only rear rest allowed is for the shooter to use their free hand.

Divisions 2 and 3: (Formal Rests) Legends/Legacy events feature separate custom front and rear rests or any informal rests that they are comfortable with.

TOP GUN Program: 2024

Preface:

The goal of developing the TOP GUN Program was to provide our members and guests greater opportunities to compete in rifle competitions using their favorite firearms and equipment. To keep the competitions Fun and Fair, these competitions are meant to follow a Gentleman's Set of Rules.

Personnel:

Shooters vary from individual competitors to teams of 2, 3 or 4 competitors.

Course of Fire:

To provide a challenge to each rifleman, the rifle competitions vary in Course of Fire. Challenges include; changes in Yardage, Positions (Off-Hand and/or Benchrest), time, number of rounds to be used, and types of targets to be used.

Targets:

Most targets are comprised of either paper, metal plates or bowling pins.

Yardages:

Most competitions use yardages of 25, 50, 75, 100, and 200 yards.

Calibers:

Rifle calibers used range from .17 caliber to 30 caliber ammunition.

Firearms:

Rifles include Benchrest and Sporter classifications. Benchrest rifles are strictly meant for shooting from a benchrest, where as, Sporter rifles are meant to be shouldered from the Off-Hand position. Division 1: Rifleman's Challenge events feature both Off-Hand and Benchrest positions during the COF. Divisions 2 and 3, Legend/Legacy events feature strictly Benchrest positions.

Equipment:

Division 1: (Informal Rests) Rifleman's Challenge events feature frontal rests, but no rear rests. Sand bags, blankets, backpacks, and bipods are appropriate for front rest. The only rear rest allowed is for the shooter to use their free hand.

Divisions 2 and 3: (Formal Rests) Legends/Legacy events feature separate custom front and rear rests or any informal rests that they are comfortable with.